Life in Two Deaths

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
29 Sep 2019

Am 6:1, 4-7
1 Tim 6:11-16
Lk 16:19-31

The Rich Man and Lazarus in today's gospel, whilst living very different lives, had one thing in common - they both died! It is with great certainty that we too, are all going to die. Yet, many do not want nor like to talk about death because in a superstitious way, it is inauspicious to do so. And when it comes to talking about our own personal death, most would not even contemplate the thought unless they find themselves seriously ill or injured. At that point in time, even Christians, may fall into despair, denial and anger.

Death is a consequence of sin. Sin entered into the world through Adam, and because all men sinned, so all must die (cf Rom 5:12, CCC 1008). Jesus, the Son of God, himself suffered the death that is part of the human condition. And though Jesus was without sin, he freely chose to accept a cruel and horrifying death as the perfect atonement for all our sins, in complete submission to his Father's will. The obedience of Jesus transformed the curse of death into a blessing when he was resurrected (cf CCC 1009). Now, by the grace of faith in Jesus Christ, we too can rise with Christ after our bodily death.

To rise with Christ, we must die with Christ (cf CCC 1005), because "if we have died with him, we will also live with him." (2 Tim 2:11) "Through our Baptism, we have already 'died with Christ' sacramentally, in order to live a new life." Then, "if we die in Christ's grace, physical death completes this 'dying with Christ' and so completes our incorporation into him in his redeeming act." (CCC 1010)

So to a Christian, by the grace and mercy of God, death is no longer dying, but entering life!

Death then simply marks the end of our earthly pilgrimage and the end of time available to us to freely choose to love God and our neighbour which ultimately decide our destiny after life (cf CCC1013). The Rich Man in choosing to ignore the needs of Lazarus, who was right at the very gate of his house, had in fact chosen to ignore God. He chose not to love his neighbour the way he loved himself. As a consequence, the Rich Man by the choices he made in life, ended up in Hell. In the same way, our choices in life matter and has consequences into eternity, because whilst we are saved by faith in Christ Jesus, we will be judged by what we have done with our earthly life (cf Rev 20:12-13, Mt 25:31-46).

It is not always easy to love our neighbour. It is not always easy to choose to follow God's ways, because we are mostly worried about earthly consequences instead of consequences into eternity. As a result, we may hold back on providing and building up the Church because we cannot see any earthly returns from giving to the Church. We choose to take our children out of Catechism because exam preparations and vacations seem more important presently, than a sound grounding in Christ in their lives. We choose not to speak about our faith to others because we are afraid of being ridiculed. Our first reading today, cautions us not to allow our earthly considerations of success and comfort lull us into complacency about eternity, and in the second reading, St Paul urges us to "fight the good fight of faith and win for yourself the eternal life" to which we are called at our baptism (1 Tim 6:12).

Fighting to keep our faith can be a mighty struggle. We cannot do it by ourselves but must implore the help of the Holy Spirit through prayer. In prayer, through the living word of Scriptures and through the Sacraments, we encounter Jesus our risen Christ and come to know him as the One whom we can and should love deeply. When we fall in love with Jesus, choosing to obey comes more naturally. Then, when we die in God's grace and friendship, we will be assured of eternal salvation (cf CCC 1030).

"Death is no longer dying, but entering life."

The Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of the Holy Rosary is October and this entire month is dedicated to the Rosary. The feast day of the Holy Rosary is 7 October - in memory of the glorious and triumphant victory at the battle of Lepanto. That battle was the most convincing military victory that proved without a doubt the great power of the Rosary. The month of October is a good time to commit to praying the Rosary everyday. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to our life. It is a powerful instrument for conversion. The Rosary is the best method of honouring Mary.

Activities in Our Parish

EVENING ROSARY PRAYERS

During the month of the Rosary, you may gather with fellow Catholics to pray the Rosary at the Grotto, after evening mass daily (about 7.15pm on weekdays, 6.45pm on the weekends).

MAP OF PRAYER & ROSARY WALK

In the spirit of evangelisation, as it is also the month of mission, do join us on the Rosary walk as well. Just gather in small groups and walk as you pray the rosary. When you're done, please take a marker and highlight the path that you walked on the map found at the front of the church. If you walked outside of the parish boundaries, just write the name of the area along the sides of the map. Hopefully, we will fill the estate and Singapore with prayer during this month of the rosary. If you wish to follow the parish-organised walks, these will be held from 14 to 20 Oct. Meet at the Grotto after evening mass. If it rains or if haze conditions are very bad, prayers will held indoors.

ROSARY BOOKLETS

Includes the 4 mysteries, as well as a thematic rosary booklet for specific intentions such as families, vocations, souls in purgatory, pro-life and healing! These can also be found on our parish website under "resources" (<http://www.sfxchurch.sg/resources>). You can download it and use it for your rosary walks!
