Loving the Good Samaritan Lifestyle

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time
10 Jul 2022

Deut 30:10-14
Col 1:15-20
Lk 10:25-37

The parable of the Good Samaritan that Jesus tells in today's gospel has resounded so powerfully that the word "Samaritan" has entered common usage. It is used of anyone or any organization dedicated to reaching out to the needy without counting the cost.

In Jesus' time, however, the word "Samaritan" had a negative connotation. It referred to the Jews of Northern Israel who had inter-married with the foreigners from the Assyrian invasion. These Samaritan Jews had adopted the idols of their invaders and were thus despised for having abandoned the one true God worshipped in the Jerusalem Temple.

It seems odd therefore that Jesus chose a Samaritan as the hero of this parable. The man who had been mugged and left for dead on the road between Jerusalem and Jericho was ignored by both the priest and the Levite who were supposed to have shown him the charity expected of the true worshipper. Instead, it was the Samaritan, the "idol worshipper", who, "moved with compassion...bandaged [the man's] wounds, pouring oil and wine on them...lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him." (Lk 10:34) Turning back to the lawyer who prompted this parable by asking Jesus who was to be considered a "neighbour," Jesus elicited from him the response that it was the one who "took pity" on the wounded man that was considered a "neighbour." The lawyer had initially wanted to differentiate between "neighbour" and "non-neighbour" to absolve himself from having to help some categories of people but Jesus' question forced him to re-define the meaning of "neighbour" – one has the duty to be a "neighbour" to everyone or as St John Henry Newman puts it, "God has created [us] to do Him some definite service...[to be] a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons."

Today, it is common to hear people speak of choosing a healthy, fashionista or jet-setting lifestyle. Pope Francis would like us to also have a "Good Samaritan lifestyle": "The Good Samaritan indicates a lifestyle, the center of which is not ourselves, but others, with their difficulties ... I must not categorize others in order to decide who is my neighbour and who is not. It is up to me whether to be a neighbour or not — the decision is mine —... even if they are strangers or perhaps hostile... Do I make neighbors, or do I just pass by?" (Angelus, July 10, 2016)

This sounds like a very tall order but the first reading says this overarching love is "not beyond [our] strength" (Deut 30:11) because we can be assured that Christ himself, the Word of God, "is very near to [us], [he] is in [our] mouth, and in [our] heart." (Deut 30:14) Jesus has also told us, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (Jn 6:57) Today's Prayer over the Offerings petitions of our Father that the Eucharist, "when consumed by those who believe...may bring ever greater holiness." This holiness is the bond of communion that Christ has offered us. We, the Church, are his body and he is our head (cf Col 1:18). We can love much because the love of Christ is in us and we are in him.

This Good Samaritan lifestyle of unstinting compassion towards the needy is a lifestyle that Christ has modelled for us. The Church Fathers regarded Jesus himself as the Good Samaritan. By his incarnation, he came down to a humanity left for dead by sin. Christ pours on us "oil and wine" – the Holy Spirit for our sanctification and his Eucharistic body for eternal life. St Ambrose says, "[Jesus], the Good Samaritan, who is the guardian of souls...when He came... [took] upon Himself our infirmities, He became a neighbour by bestowing compassion."

If we desire this Good Samaritan lifestyle, we need to look to Christ, the true Good Samaritan. Rejected, mocked, tortured and crucified – he never once counted the cost because he "took pity" on our woundedness from sin and guilt. At every Mass he continues to pour "oil & wine" on us through the Eucharist - restoring us and giving us eternal life. Thank you Jesus, for being our neighbour, Saviour and friend.

"The Good Samaritan indicates a lifestyle, the center of which is not ourselves, but others."

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING BY REV FR DAVID GARCIA, O.P.

What does it mean when the Church says work has dignity? Why is it a problem when managers micromanage their staff? Why do persons with and without intellectual disabilities have equal dignity? What is the problem with both capitalism and communism? What is our duty to the poor and the environment? Why does the Church prefer democracy? What does the Church have to say about world peace? Jesus challenges us in the gospel to interpret the signs of the times. Come and turn to the Church's social teachings so we can obtain the tools to think about the social issues of our time! ### TRUTH TO INSPIRE: ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, otherwise known as the "Lily of the Mohawks," became our first Native American Saint after her canonization in 2012. During her life, young Kateri suffered much ridicule due to her counter-cultural decision to remain a virgin out of love for Christ. As we celebrate Kateri's feast day today, enjoy this short audio book that describes Kateri's journey to Our Lord within the context of her native tribe.
