Wait upon the Lord

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
7 Aug 2022

Wis 18:6-9
Heb 11:1-2, 8-19
Lk 12:32-48

Jesus exhorts his disciples in today's Gospel to be ready for when the Son of Man returns, for the day and time of his coming is not known to us. Joe Tedesco, a lecturer in pastoral liturgy, writes "While we wait for the completion of all things, for the final act in the story of the salvation of all, it can seem dark and even pointless. We are not to succumb to the darkness but remain people of purpose, dressed and ready to respond to Christ at any moment. To have our 'lamps burning' providing light to the places we live." (Pastoral Liturgy 52, no. 3, University of Notre Dame, Australia)

Here, we ought to reflect on ourselves. What is our purpose(s) in life? What does having our lamps lit and providing light to those around us look like in our own circumstances? Perhaps we are not beating our employees or getting drunk every night (cf Lk 12:45). However, we should also consider, what are some ways we may be tempted to let our guard down, and how can we overcome that?

This anticipation and expectation of God's fulfillment of his promise is echoed in the Book of Wisdom which portrays the salvific intention of God in the Exodus event. The First Reading shows the Israelites waiting upon the Lord God. Because of the confidence they had in the Promised Land God said he would give to Abraham (cf 2nd reading, Gen 12:1), the Israelites heeded Moses' instruction on the Passover sacrifice (cf Wis 18:6, Ex 12:21ff) and offered the Passover in devotion and faith even while still in captivity. "When the time of deliverance came, they were ready...because they trusted the revealed nature of God and because they remained devoted to it, connected to and aware of the nature of God." (Joe Tedesco)

Applying it in our lives, how do we wait upon the Lord? Are we sensitive to his words and his promptings in our everyday experiences? How can we build an awareness of the divine movements within our lives, in our family, community, society, and in the world?

Jesus calls us to be responsible and accountable as he describes what would happen to the servants when the master returns. An overemphasis on the punishment may lead us to be in a heightened state of alarm. Is it as though we have to be in crisis mode all the time, in case God springs up from behind to find fault with us for not performing our best.

Of course, "Jesus does not want alertness to the point of paranoia." Tedesco draws our attention to the preceding verses of today's Gospel. "Luke 12:22-35 is a pericope often titled 'Do not Worry' (NRSV) or 'Dependence on God' (NABRE). It recounts Jesus telling his followers not to worry, using the birds of the air and the flowers in the ground to remind them that God's providential care is woven into creation itself. In simple terms, it is a call to trust God and not (like the Rich Man from last week's Gospel) trust one's own prosperity. It is not panicked or fearful vigilance that Jesus is demanding. It is sweet surrender; a journey of trust being offered."

Faith is the realisation of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. (Heb 11:1)

We see this relationship of trust being displayed by Abraham the father of faith, as he obeyed his calling, took the risk, and travelled out despite not knowing where he was to go. Indeed, "faith is the realisation of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." (Heb 11:1)

Once again, we ask ourselves, when has God invited us to deepen the roots of faith and trust within our hearts? What is our response to him today?

"The life of a Christian includes being prepared for 'God's surprises' which can come at any time and in any form. However, the foundation of any preparedness is not fear or alarm. Rather, it is a knowing and trusting that allows one to respond to the untimely, unexpected, and difficult things that come our way."

What is Your Treasure?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus talks about being ready for when He comes again. He reminds us that having nice things here on earth does not help us get into Heaven.

Jesus said "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also." He means that the things that are important to you show what it is that you love. If money or food or nice clothes are the most important things in your life then it shows that you love them more than you should. But if being kind and helpful to others and loving God are more important to you than having nice things, then you have a good treasure stored up for Heaven.

When we die everything we have will be gone. All that we will have to show to Jesus are the things that are in our hearts. If you only loved having nice stuff then the treasure box of your heart will be empty. If you loved God and others and were faithful to God then your treasure will still be full. So fill your heart with treasure that will last forever!

Answer to Math Treasure Puzzle:
1. where 2. your 3. treasure 4. is 5. there 6. will 7. your 8. heart 9. be 10. also

The Story of St Dominic

DOMINIC DE GUZMAN WAS BORN IN SPAIN IN 1170. BEFORE HE WAS BORN HIS MOTHER HAD A DREAM OF A DOG WITH A TORCH IN ITS MOUTH.

DOMINIC LOVED STUDYING ABOUT GOD, BUT ONE TIME HE SOLD HIS RARE BOOKS TO HELP THE POOR!

HE BECAME AN AUGUSTINIAN PRIEST AND LIVED IN A MONASTERY FOR 9 YEARS.

God would not become a man! Physical things are evil!

HE GOT PERMISSION FROM THE POPE TO PREACH TO THEM, AND DID MANY SACRIFICES.

TRAVELING AROUND ITALY, FRANCE AND SPAIN, DOMINIC STARTED MANY HOUSES OF PREACHING PRIESTS.

Father Dominic, we want to follow what you are doing.

DOMINIC LOVED OUR LADY AND THE ROSARY. HE BEGAN CONVENTS FOR WOMEN WHO CAME BACK TO THE FAITH WHO WOULD TEACH IT TO THE CHILDREN.

DOMINIC WORKED HARD AND SACRIFICED MUCH TO BRING THE HERETICS BACK TO THE TRUTH. HE ATE ONLY BREAD AND SOUP, SLEPT ON THE FLOOR AND WENT EVERYWHERE ON FOOT. THE DREAM THAT HIS MOTHER HAD REPRESENTED THE LIGHT OF TRUTH THAT DOMINIC WOULD BRING TO THE WORLD.
