The Baptism of the Lord
12 Jan 2025

Is 40: 1-5; 9-11
Tit 2: 11-14; 3:4-7
Lk 3: 15-16; 21-22

This Sunday marks the end of the Christmas season in our liturgical calendar, and the start of Jesus' public ministry in the Lectionary. Moving forward, we will hear about the Lord's miracles, parables and teachings. Here was where our Lord stood at the cusp of bestowing his grace and mercy on the people of his time in the places he lived: healing the sick, exorcising the possessed, forgiving sins, raising the dead, multiplying providence, overcoming nature, and bringing the Kingdom of God to his followers through stories that touched them.

You could say that Jesus' Baptism was his big 'coming-out' ceremony, and the end of three decades of quiet anonymity; the coming out and revelation of Jesus as God, fully divine, the second person of the Holy Trinity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Jesus' Baptism was God's visible sign to announce – in his own voice – Jesus' identity as the beloved Son of God, and to disclose the eternal union of our Trinitarian God, the perfect love they share in the form of the third person, the Holy Spirit. And when the Spirit, as a dove, came to rest on Jesus, he became the source of the Spirit for all mankind.

Being sinless, Jesus did not need to be baptised and cleansed of original sin. When asked if he was the Christ, John the Baptist said, "I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is mightier than I am and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Lk 3:16). John's role as a baptiser was to be Jesus' messenger, the voice in the wilderness to point the Lord out (cf. Isa 40:3), so that the people would turn from their sinful ways, repent and follow him.

Our Lord's Baptism is a visible herald to fulfil Isaiah's prophecy that "'Here is your God.' Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him... He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms..." (Is 40:9-11). That, filled with the Holy Spirit, our Lord Jesus would raise up the "valleys" of those who are poor in spirit and humble the "mountains" of the proud (cf. Is 40:4-5). At Jesus' baptism, God the Father announces to the people of God that their Lord has arrived to shepherd them to fullness of life and eternal salvation as new creations (cf. Is 40:11).

For our God, there can be no glory without the cross. "The baptism of Jesus is on his part the acceptance and inauguration of his mission as God's Suffering Servant. He allows himself to be numbered among sinners; he is already "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world". Already he is anticipating the "baptism" of his bloody death" (CCC 536).

Through his baptism, Jesus was not only revealed as all-powerful God, he also assumed his humble humanity. He was submissive to his Father's will – "Let it be so now; for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness" (Mt 3:15), he had said to John – and allowed himself to be counted

*"The baptism of Jesus is on his part the acceptance and inauguration of his mission as God's Suffering Servant"
(CCC 536)*

among us, to pave the way for all of us that the sacrament of Baptism is the gateway to being God's children in grace.

Our lives post-baptism ought to look like this: "[W]hat we have to do is to give up everything that does not lead to God, and all our worldly ambitions; we must be self-restrained and live good and religious lives" (Tit 2:11) because he has saved us "by means of the cleansing water of rebirth and by renewing us with the Holy Spirit" (Tit 3:6).

As baptised Catholics, we are configured to Christ, sealed with his indelible mark and belong to him (cf. CCC 1272). We have been reborn in the Spirit and must live as new creations; to be like Christ, Spirit-filled, prayerful, obedient and pleasing to the Father (cf. Lk 3: 21-22).

BECOME A CATECHIST

The Catechetical Year 2025 was launched just last weekend. The theme for this year is Embracing Hope! And it is with hearts full of hope that we appeal for fellow parishioners to come forward to serve in the Catechetical Ministry. Inspired by Pope Francis' prayer intention this month for the right to an education, we would also like to also ensure that our children exercise their right to a fruitful and engaging Catechesis journey. To do that, we continue to seek support from you all to join the journey. We would like to appeal for help for the upper primary levels (L4 - L6). If you feel the Lord's nudging, you can reach out to Dan Lai at 9749 1635 to find out more.

Commemorating our First Mass: A Historic Moment

On 11 Jan 1959, a momentous occasion marked the spiritual landscape of our community as the Church of Saint Francis Xavier celebrated its first Holy Mass. This ceremony represented not just the inauguration of a new house of worship, but the culmination of years of dedicated work, faith, and community effort.

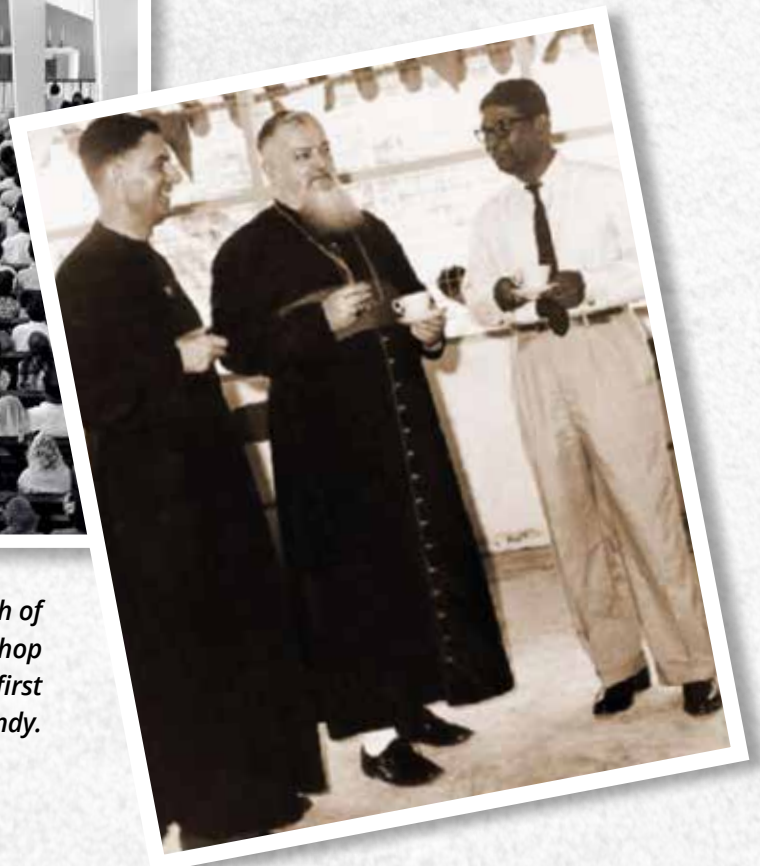

The inaugural Mass brought together faithful from all corners of Serangoon Garden estate, filling the newly consecrated church with prayers and hymns. The ceremony was officiated by Archbishop Olçomendy, assisted by Frs Norris and Barthoulot, marking the beginning of a spiritual journey that would touch countless lives in the decades to follow.

This historical milestone laid the foundation for what would become a vibrant centre of faith, community service, and spiritual guidance. Today, over six decades later, the Church of Saint Francis Xavier continues to stand as a testament to the enduring spirit of its founding members and the growing faith community it serves.

[Left] In 1959 when the Church was built, the Tridentine mass was the norm. The altar was set against the wall and the priests and altar servers faced the altar.

[Right] A celebration after the Church of St Francis Xavier was officially blessed - Archbishop Olçomendy (centre), Rev Fr René Challet (the first parish priest) and Matthew Chandy.

(Above) The main structure of the Church was a large space to accommodate a congregation of 1,000. The figure of Jesus was carved in Austria but attached to the wooden cross in Singapore.

(Above) In early 1957, a five-acre plot of land was purchased for $55,000. The foundation stone laying ceremony was held on 26 Apr 1958 and by Dec 1958, the Church was completed just in time to celebrate the feast day of St Francis Xavier.

The parish of St Francis Xavier, a place where God is and people come to worship, to meet and work, to share in grief and to celebrate in joy.
